CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Major Oak, Sherwood Forest. This mighty tree, also called the Queen Oak, is on the right of the Edwinstowe road upon the edge of the Forest. The trunk is of vast proportions, and at its base has a circumference of ninety feet. Its huge branches stretch out 240 feet in a straight line, and its trunk, hollow to the height of 15 feet, offers standing-room for a dozen people.

I thought you would like this card, thinking you and all Reching would with dinner Yours Yr: G
